Christmas Tree Blessing

Blessed are you, Lord our God, before whom all the trees of the forest sing for joy, for you have come to rule the earth and all its peoples in your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace.
By his death on the cross and his rising in glory,
the tree of our defeat has become our tree of victory, and the pure light of Christ forever gladdens our waiting world.

We ask you to send your blessing upon this tree which we have decorated in honor of your Son’s birth.
Let it help us to celebrate this holy season as living branches of him and bear the fruit of good works for your glory,
this day and every day,
both now and forever. Amen

-Fr Michael Kwatera

SPIRITUAL REFLECTIONS

Between God and the World

In these last days, God has spoken to us through the Son.

Basically, before moving on to personal devotions and contemplation or reading stories of the Holy Night, one should read these weighty verses of [the Letter to the Hebrews] to be spiritually touched by the impact of this holy day we are celebrating. We...run the risk of concealing Christmas behind bourgeois customs and sentimentality, behind all those traditions that make this holiday dear and precious to us. Yet perhaps the deep meaning is still hiding behind all those things.

What this celebration is about is the founding of a final order for the world, a new center of meaning for all existence. We are not celebrating some children’s holiday, but rather the fact that God has spoken His ultimate Word to the world. Christ is the ultimate Word of God to the world. One must let this idea really sink in these days when people are seeking new values. If you take God seriously- this relationship between God and the world – and if you know how important God is to society as well as to private life, then this has to touch you. The ultimate Word of God to the world! God does not contradict Himself and does not repeat Himself. One must use every ounce of willpower to comprehend this, and let this concept sink in: Christ, as the ultimate Word of God to the world.
